ACTING is an enjoyable experience in personal & professional growth using acting, auditioning & interviewing techniques. Acting techniques include cold reading, character development, improvisation, theater games, on-camera & stage techniques, commercial techniques, voice over & auditioning. Instructor ART LYNCH is a BC resident & a professional theater, film, television & communications coach. For the past 13 years, Lynch has been an adjunct professor at CSN, & an acting instructor at schools, businesses & to industry professionals.

Specialized classes are forming to develop a living theater of the history of Boulder City & Hoover Dam.
