

What's Happening around the City of Boulder City

Welcome to Boulder City's New Finance Director, Cynthia Sneed!

After a nationwide search, Boulder City is pleased to announce that Cynthia Sneed is joining the City as Finance Director/Real Estate Officer. She previously served as Financial Services Director for the City of Durango, CO since 2020. She is working her first official day today. Sneed, a native of Arizona, said she looks forward to living in the southwest once again, and is especially interested in getting to know Boulder City. "Boulder City has an interesting history and mix of recreational opportunities that fit with my interests," said Cynthia. "The City is largely funded by taxpayers, and Boulder City residents have every right to review and understand how their dollars are being spent and understand the financial condition of the City. The size and services provided by the City have proven to be a sweet spot for my career in government finance, yet easy access to bigger city amenities." Cynthia is a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Government Finance Manager. Her career path includes Maricopa County Community College District, the City of Maricopa, the City of Chandler and the private sector. She received her Bachelor of Science in Accountancy from Arizona State University and her Master of Education in Educational Leadership from Northern Arizona University. She and her husband Mike, a retired public school teacher, have two grown sons, Jeffrey (25) and Charlie (19). They also have two dogs, Daisy and Penny. Welcome, Cynthia!!!
