Scholarship Awarded to Kyle Foutz!

Kyle Foutz in the City's Finance Department has been awarded a First-Time Attendee Scholarship for Government Finance Officers Association's (GFOA) 117th Annual Conference! This year, the conference is being held May 21-24, 2023 in Portland, Oregon. The scholarship covers the conference registration fee. The Annual Conference offers opportunity for education, growth, and networking with professionals from across the country and Canada. Since starting the scholarship program, more than 3,500 GFOA members have been able to attend their first Annual Conference without having to pay the $500.00 registration fee. Congratulations, Kyle!!

ICYMI: BC's Employee of the Quarter Winner is...

Congratulations to Sicily McCall, the first winner of the new Employee of the Quarter recognition! Sicily works in dispatch. Her nomination form said: "Sicily demonstrates exceptional dedication by the positive re-enforcement she provides, not only to the dispatchers, but the officers, volunteers, and part-time personnel. In one sentence; she shows up, performs with excellence, and is leader everyone could learn from." See the video of Sicily's award presentation at <https://youtu.be/x151Wc1dCVw>. One of the four excellent Employee of the Quarter winners will become Employee of the Year in December!
