

What's Happening around the City of Boulder City

Brady Prestwich is Employee of the Quarter!

Congratulations to Utility Billing Supervisor Brady Prestwich, winner of the Employee of the 2nd Quarter! The nomination stated that Utilities Billing “is an area where you not only need to understand the billing procedures and payment processes, but also deliver excellent customer service. Brady is always looking for ways to assist customers, constantly thinking outside the box and addressing the concerns he hears rather than just letting them go. He is an extremely dedicated employee that cares about the utilities’ customers, employees, and bottom line.” Brady and Sicily McCall (BCPD Dispatch) and two other Employees of the Quarter winners will be eligible for the Employee of the Year 2023. ## Website Redesign Launches Tuesday

Since January, the Communications Division staff have been working to clean up the website to make it easier for residents to find information. As a result, we have been receiving fewer calls from residents looking for web pages. At the same time, staff from every department, worked with CivicPlus on an aesthetic website redesign. The new look will launch tomorrow, July 18. The redesign includes larger, cleaner fonts, new photographs, and colors that match/complement the city seal. There will be a one-hour disruption of access tomorrow between noon and 1:00 p.m. as they “flip the switch.” An alert on the bcnv.org landing page is posted so residents will know it is temporary.
