

What's Happening around the City of Boulder City

Wurst Festival is Saturday!

Be sure to come down to Boulder City's beautiful Bicentennial Park for Wurst Festival on Saturday, September 30! Starting in the early morning hours, volunteers will cook up thousands of brats and hot dogs. Food trucks and cold beverages will be available. The Wurst Dam Car Show will showcase more than 200 cars. Be sure to check out the live auction starting at 3:30 in the afternoon—items include golf and vacation packages as well as donations from local businesses. Enjoy music from DJ Mike Pacini and live music entertainment throughout the day. This annual event is a major fundraiser for Boulder City Sunrise Rotary, with funds helping cover the costs of the annual BC High School Seniors All-Night Graduation Party. BCPD Invites you to National Night Out October 3!

Celebrate National Night Out at Veterans Memorial Park on Tuesday, October 3, 2023, from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Meet the officers of BCPD, including the Mounted Unit and Animal Control Officers, as well as BC Fire Department, National Park Service and many others who protect our community. Get the kids into fun activities like a zipline, rock climbing wall, bounce house and more. BC Fire Department will have fire trucks and an ambulance on site. BC Police will take on BC Fire Departments in a friendly softball game. Be sure to add your name to the raffle for a chance to win lots of great prizes while raising money for the BCPD Mounted Unit and BC Animal Control. Southwest Diner and BC Shaved Ice will have food and beverages available for purchase at the park. Learn more about the event at www.bcnv.org/352/National-Night-Out.
