

What's Happening around the City of Boulder City

Welcome, Boulder City Police Officer Samantha Lloyd!

Boulder City Police welcomed a new officer this morning, when Samantha Lloyd took the Oath of Office! Police Chief Tim Shea swore in Officer Lloyd in the Council Chamber. Officer Lloyd was born and raised in Northern California and has lived here for nearly five years. She completed the Southern Desert Regional Police Academy last week with recruits from agencies throughout Southern Nevada. Recruits receive more than 775 hours of academic and practical training on various topics including police ethics, criminal law, defensive tactics, firearms, principles of investigation and more during the 22-week academy. Video of the Oath of Office is available at <https://youtu.be/VGWf0-zaq-Q>.

Tuesday is Halloween!

Kids will be on the streets tomorrow night in search of treats. Parents, make sure your children are not out alone and they stay on sidewalks as much as possible. Have them wear bright costumes or reflective clothing and have them carry a flashlight. Make sure to check their candy before they eat it. Kids throughout Clark County should be "Inside by Nine." Use extra caution when driving tomorrow: be aware of your surroundings and stay off your phone.
