

New Marshal in Town at Boulder City Municipal Court

Congratulations to Joel Guerrero, a full-time Deputy Municipal Court Marshal! He started in the new role in September. You may have seen Joel working as a City Marshal, where he's been keeping staff safe at City Council meetings for almost four years. Joel was born and raised in the Philippines and migrated to the U.S. when he was 21 years old. He served in the U.S. Air Force active duty for ten years, and has been in the USAF Reserves for seven years now. He worked as an Officer for Nevada Highway Patrol, then was recruited by the Bureau of Reclamation, where he worked while he was a City Marshal for Boulder City. When the chance came available to work full time for Boulder City Municipal Court, he was grateful for the opportunity. "I grew up in a small town, and that's why I like the atmosphere of Boulder City," Joel said about Boulder City. "The people and the community are so friendly and welcoming. I'm excited to be working with the great staff at the Court." Joel and his wife Mae have been married for 15 years. They have two children - Bianca and Chase – and one shih-poo puppy! Congratulations, Joel!
