

What's Happening around the City of Boulder City

Congratulations, City Planner Susan Danielewicz!

Taylor Tedder giving Susan Danielewicz her thirty year tenure award in December 2022.

Susan Danielewicz (Community Development) is getting ready to enjoy the life of a retiree, after almost 31 years with the City of Boulder City! Susan started her career as a City Planner in 1985 in Michigan, where she worked for seven years. She had never been to Boulder City until 1992, where after a nationwide job search, she was hired by the City. She says she was drawn to the historic nature and art appreciation in the community. "Looking at downtown in 1992, I thought, 'This town has potential!'" Susan recently shared. Susan says she will miss the people - her coworkers and the residents - the most in her retirement. Boulder City Review will be doing a full article on Susan on her last day: Thursday, November 16. Congratulations and best wishes, Susan!
