

What's Happening around the City of Boulder City

Last Days for Donation Drive

Just a quick reminder that the 17th Annual Holiday Donation Drive ends Wednesday, December 6. Emergency Aid says in recent months, donations have been down, while the need is greater than ever. Personal hygiene items such as toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap, shampoo, deodorant and cotton swabs are needed. We'll also take new or gently used hats and gloves. The donation box is located outside the City Clerk's office. If you have questions, call Teena at 702.293.9354.

New Program for Energy Improvement Measures

Do you know a home owner struggling with rising utilities costs? They may be eligible for low-interest, unsecured loans for eligible home upgrades such as heating, ventilation, air conditioning, and refrigeration (HVAC-R), roofing, solar PV, and other clean energy measures. The Residential Energy Upgrade Program (RE-UP) helps low-income or credit-challenged households get funding for improvements. The program operates through the Nevada Clean Energy Fund: <https://nevadacef.org/residents> for details.
