Hemenway Park Receives Silver State Legacy Award

Boulder City Parks and Recreation staff was thrilled to learn Hemenway Park received the Nevada Recreation and Park Society (NRPS) "Silver State Legacy" designation at Lake Tahoe earlier this month. Established in 1984, the park includes picnic areas, two lighted softball fields, basketball courts, tennis courts, playground equipment, parking lot, and landscaped open green space. The park is a favorite stop for tourists looking to catch a glimpse of the Bighorn Sheep. In the past year, staff added the Hemenway Park "Ram Cam" to provide a live feed coverage of the park and opened a beautiful discovery trail so visitors can enjoy a hike in nature. The nature trail includes informative signs about the surrounding habitat and the animals that live there. Silver State Legacy Park is the highest accolade the NRPS can bestow upon a park. Congratulations to the Parks and Recreation team!
