

BC Welcomes New Accountant Manager Amara Vigil!

Amara Vigil started her first day with the Boulder City Finance Department as Accountant Manager today. She's originally from Northern Nevada, but moved when she was young, living in California, Idaho, Oklahoma, and Las Vegas. She had a unique upbringing! "I grew-up on an ostrich farm in Oklahoma," Amara said. "It was an interesting childhood and really developed a foundation of respect for those in the agriculture community and a love for small, tight knit communities." She has worked for Clark County Building Department as the Senior Management Analyst over finance, inspections scheduling and administration; for the City of Carson City as Accounting Manager, working on CIP and the ACFR; and for the Nevada Department of Agriculture as the Fiscal Administrator, as well as managing facilities and information technology. "After working the past two years in Northern Nevada, I am excited to have a winter without snow driving!" Amara said. She and her husband, Abran (Abe) have been married for 17 years, and have two, three year old, very energetic fur babies: a sheepadoodle (Clovis) and a bernedoodle (Zia). She's ready to hit the ground running in her new role! "I enjoy the small community feel of Boulder City," Amara added. "I am very excited to work on the ACFR and to be a part of the fiscal team that supports Boulder City. I love working with numbers and having full focus on finance is truly my passion." When she's not keeping up with Clovis and Zia, Amara enjoys the outdoors—"hiking, biking or just laying around in the sun, and recently picked up woodworking. Welcome, Amara!!
