

Proclamation

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

- WHEREAS, We, the citizens of Boulder City, place a high value on local choice over community services and therefore have chosen to operate a community-owned, not-for-profit electric utility and, as customers and owners of our electric utility, have a direct say in utility operations and policies; and
- WHEREAS, Boulder City Utilities, Electrical Services provides our homes, businesses, schools, and social service and local government agencies with reliable, efficient, and safe electricity employing sound business practices designed to ensure the best possible service at not-for-profit rates; and
- WHEREAS, Boulder City Utilities, Electrical Services is a valuable community asset that contributes to the well-being of local citizens through energy efficiency, customer service, environmental protection, economic development, and safety awareness; and
- WHEREAS, Boulder City Utilities, Electrical Services is a dependable and trustworthy institution whose local operation provides many consumer protections and continues to make our community a better place to live and work, and contributes to protecting the global environment; and
- WHEREAS, Boulder City Utilities, Electrical Services will continue to work to bring low-cost, safe, reliable, and sustainable electricity to community homes and businesses just as it has since 1960, the year when the utility was created to serve all the citizens of Boulder City; and
- WHEREAS, We recognize the people behind public power at Boulder City Utilities, Electrical Services for their contributions to the community and to educate customer-owners, policymakers, and employees on the benefits of public power; and
