

Another Scam Alert!

There is yet another phone scam in Boulder City. In this latest one, the caller states he uses the name of a current Lieutenant of the Boulder City Police Department and attempts to scam the victims by telling them they have a federal warrant for their arrest for missing jury duty. They often will demand that the resident send them money, gift cards, Venmo, CashApp, Paypal or other financial payment to stay out of jail. The Boulder City Police Department and Boulder City Courts do not call residents for jury duty. When in doubt, hang up and call the department directly.
