

What's Happening around the City of Boulder City

And the Award for Distinguished Budget Presentation goes to...

The Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) announced that the City of Boulder City has again received GFOA's Distinguished Budget Presentation Award for our budget!! The award represents significant achievement and our commitment "to meeting the highest principles of governmental budgeting." In order to receive the budget award, staff had to satisfy nationally recognized guidelines for effective budget presentation, including how the budget serves as a policy document, a financial plan, an operations guide, and a communications device. Congratulations to all, and especially to the team in the Boulder City Finance Department!!

Check out Art in the Park this Weekend!

Wilbur Square, Bicentennial Park, and both North and South Escalante Parks will be filled with vendors and fun this Saturday and Sunday, October 4 and 5, for Art in the Park! This event draws over 100,000 visitors every year and is known throughout the arts community as one of the largest outdoor art festivals in the Southwest. Now in it's 61st year, Art in the Park also serves as the largest annual fundraiser for the Boulder City Hospital Foundation. Attendance is free. Food and beverages will be available from a variety of vendors. Be sure to check out the website at <https://bchcares.org/art-in-the-park/> for details!
