

Knitting with Lori

Instructor Lori Wagner is a knitwear designer who learned how to knit while on a girls' getaway with her high school friends in 2008. She became immediately addicted to knitting and continued to learn by taking classes through her local yarn shop, online and at various knitting conventions. She loves to share her passion for knitting through teaching others. In the Beginning classes, students will learn basic stitches in knitting, how to cast-on and bind-off by working swatches and small projects. In the Group Knitting classes, students who have basic knitting knowledge, can bring in projects of their choice and Lori will help them to read the pattern, teach how to fix mistakes and help them where needed to finish their project.

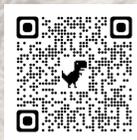

Classes are held at the ABC Art Center at 801 Adams Blvd
