Boulder City Firefighters Association Pancake Breakfast

Boulder City Firefighters Association Presents Annual Pancake Breakfast

October 18th 8 a.m.-11a.m

1101 Elm St.

Boulder City, NV

The public is invited to come have free pancakes!

- Meet your local Firefighters and tour the station
- Check out the new training grounds, with a special visit from Mercy Air
- Kids helmet giveaway and bike rally
- Opportunity to donate blood
- Local business gift certificate give-away

Grab a cup of coffee or orange juice and get to know our Boulder City Firefighters at the Annual Pancake Breakfast this Saturday, October 18!! Meet the brave first responders who answer our calls in an emergency!! Bring the entire family to enjoy free pancakes, tour the station, and see the department's new training grounds!! Learn about some of the amazing programs offered by the Boulder City Fire Department!! Do your part to help save lives—either by getting a free bicycle helmet for your kids or through blood donation!! The event runs from 8:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. at the Fire Department at 1101 Elm Street. We hope to see you there!!

Pickleball Ribbon Cutting Celebration a Success!

Parks and Recreation staff welcomed City Council, staff and Pickleball enthusiasts bright and early this morning at Veterans Memorial Park to cut the ribbon at the new Pickleball Courts! During a 2022 town hall session regarding the American Recovery Plan Act, residents overwhelmingly supported funding the new courts. Plans are in the works to install lighting thanks to a donation from Roccasecca Solar. We hope you get a chance to get out there and try it out!!
