Nominations Open for 2026 Historic Preservation Award

BOULDER CITY – As reinvestment and renovations occur to many of the older buildings, parks and homes within our community, historic preservation remains an important and celebrated part of Boulder City’s identity. Our history is forever tied to the families who came here 95 years ago for the construction of the Hoover Dam, and the places that remain today serve as a meaningful reminder of how it all started. The Boulder City Historic Preservation Commission and City Council invite all to participate in our efforts to recognize those preserving and promoting Boulder City’s unique history by submitting nominations for the 16th Annual Historic Preservation Award!

Created in 2011, the annual Historic Preservation Award (a plaque and certificate) recognizes the hard work of our local residents and business owners in their efforts to maintain and enhance the architectural, historical, and cultural heritage of Boulder City. The award is based on the exterior of the building or property as readily visible from the street. Properties or features may be residential, commercial, institutional, religious, parks, landscapes or streetscapes. The winner will be recognized online during Preservation Month, May 2026. See the criteria and submit nominations at www.bcnv.org/HPAwards.

The award can also recognize a historically appropriate remodel, addition, or new construction, or an excellent example of preservation or restoration. “Encouraging property owner reinvestment within the district helps to preserve the city’s unique character, strengthen property values, and promote the reuse of historic homes and businesses,” said Deputy City Manager Michael Mays. “The preservation of these properties is part of the City’s Strategic Plan. Historic Preservation Commission and City Council created grant programs to promote historic preservation through the reinvestment in historically significant properties within the district.” (The award is not based on the number of nominations received for a property.) Nominations are open through Sunday, March 15, 2026.

In addition to the award, the Historic Preservation Commission celebrates Historic Preservation Month and Day through events and activities that promote historic elements of our community and demonstrate the social and economic benefits of historic preservation. Planning is underway for Historic Preservation Day on May 9, 2026, and the Commission invites you to various events and activities that celebrate our history.
