Boulder City, NV – Learn about safety and get to know your community during the 2018 National Night Out (NNO)! Boulder City Police will host this fun-filled annual event at Veterans Memorial Park on Tuesday, August 7, 2018, from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. It is one of the biggest (and in our opinion, the best!) NNO events in all of Nevada.

Upon arrival, the community can learn Hand Only CPR from the Boulder City Fire Department, starting at 5:30 on Pratte Field. Kids can complete an obstacle course, play in bounce houses and more! Everyone is invited to enjoy free food and drinks. The highlight is the softball game between two teams: Boulder City High School (BCHS) Alumni against the dedicated forces of Boulder City Police and Fire Departments. Law enforcement vehicles, equipment and personnel representing local, state and federal agencies from around the valley. Community services will be on hand including Boulder City Police Department, Boulder City Fire Department, National Park Service, Henderson S.W.A.T, Nevada Highway Patrol, School District Police, and others. K-9 and Mounted Police demonstrations, emergency vehicle displays and a helicopter will all be there too! Be sure to add your name to the raffle for a chance to win lots of great prizes.

Thank you to the following sponsors who help make this event happen:
