City Business

- City Council, Committee and Commission meetings and workshops allow limited attendance (15 people) by RSVP only. Meetings are also live streamed. Details at www.bcnv.org/council.
- During the COVID-19 pandemic, the City halted late fees or disconnect service for non-payment of utility bills. Beginning January 1, 2021, the City will resume these practices. Customers can contact the Utility Billing office at 702.293.9244 to discuss options. The City has made a portion of CARES Act funding available for rent, mortgage and utility assistance through Emergency Aid of Boulder City. Learn more at www.eabcnv.com or call 702.293.0332.
- City Hall and all City buildings have limited public access until further notice. Signage is posted at the doors. Visitors must comply with a COVID-19 self-screening, body temperature must be below 100.4 degrees and a mask must be worn. Residents can handle non-emergency business by phone at 702.293.9329 during regular business hours, with limited hours on Friday and Saturday, or email staff directly using the staff directory at www.bcnv.org/Directory.aspx.
- Utility, business license and permit payments may be made at the back window of City Hall (between the Rec Building and City Hall) or online at www.bcnv.org, where you can set up autopay as well.
- Police fingerprint services (for background checks) are available by appointment only. Nevada DMV services provided at the Police Department are suspended until further notice.
- All special events, public gatherings, recreational courts and equipment are limited within City parks and facilities per the Governor's order. The City's 17 parks are still open daily from 5 a.m. until 10 p.m.
