Historic Preservation Award for 2021

The Boulder City Historic Preservation Committee has determined the Boulder City Historic Preservation Award for 2021 is hereby granted to:

The Williams “Reclamation Employee House” at 507 Utah Street

Located within the Boulder City Historic District as listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the 507 Utah Street residence was selected for this award because:

- Of the 26 single-family employee residences constructed by the Bureau of Reclamation in 1932, the property at 507 Utah retains the most of its original architectural design and materials and remains a contributing resource of the Boulder City Historic District.
- The homeowner has taken great care to retain and preserve important character defining features such as the windows, front entry, and roof.
- Alterations to the home are minimal which helps maintain the historic integrity and character of the property, the Utah Street neighborhood, and the Historic District.
